both memory of the following circulated the Gaynor story.

Tom S. Whitehouse, of Brooklyn, declares the story was started by Shepard people here for the purpose of injuring Mr. Gaynor and making him and his friends uncomfortable. On the other hand Thomas Pearsail, who was the nominee of the regular Democracy against Judge Gaynor last Fall, is a strong advocate of Judge Gaynor's notalization for Governor.

But Mr. Pearsail is said to have a seelish purpose. He wants to succeed Gaynor as Judge.

ieged complicity in an assault on Jeremiah Madden, of 1655 Broadway. Court officer Webb, to whom the warrant was given, declared that he could not find Mulvey.

To this the prisoner retorted that he had lived in the same house seventeen years; that he was well known in the neighborhood, and, moreover, he had been home every evening, as his family could testify.

Last Saturday night the pairol wagon of the Fourteenth Precinct drew up before Mulvey's house and he was arrested and taken through the streets without the faintest show of authority. No warrent was served on him, and he was left in ignorance of the cause of nis arrest until brought into court to-day.

Justice Quigley said indignantly:

"I shall investigate this matter, and for that purpose I shall adjourn the case. I am surprised that such an outrage should be perpetrated by the police, who should know botter. I shall not countreame it. I shall protect the cities. The Boston Herald Says It Fits the Case of a Great Many People.

In a recent editorial the Boston Herald, in speaking of our great poet, Oliver Wendell Holmes's happy phrase applied to William Cullen Bryant at the recent commemoration of the lat-ter's birthday, says: "Bengerously good health' fits the case of a great many people, young and old, who trust to their strong constitutions, and wear themselves out before they know it. This accounts for the fact that so many people in robust health are cut down, while those who are less vigorous live on by recognizing their own weak

The sick as a rule, take care of themselves and know enough to use medicine when necessary. It is the person in robust besith, who, by overwork, strain upon the nerves or dissipation, get just a little out of order, has headaches, becomes nervous and irritable, is unable to sleep well and wakes tired mornings, with dull-feeling head, constipation, no appetite for breakfast and a gen-eral feeling of issuinde, weakness and lack of ambition to take held of work, who is in a dan-

The Central Labor Union has decided. after having read a report from Comp-troller Fitch, that the $1,000,000 appro-priated for the Park Board last Winter priated for the Park Board last Winter for the relief of the unemployed, has not been properly expended, and at a meeting yesterday decided to refer the matter to the Lexow Committee for investigation. The Contral Labor Union called for an itemized statement from Comptroller Fitch, but only got a summary, which explained nothins.

"I should like to have the Central Labor Union Committee come down and examine the books for themselves, said Mr. Fitch to-day. "They are welcome, I'm sure.

"I see that some of the contractors bills questioned are among those yet unpaid. Strange to say, they are the same ones that have failed to be audited by this Department."
